Philosophy

Organic wine / Vegan wine

Sativa – PT-BIO-03 / Associação Vegetariana Portuguesa

On the vintage, we have selected a small batch of red grapes. We sought in these grapes its essence and literally, we have stripped them to reveal it. We bring to you this white wine (?) from red grapes (!) so that you can discover the red/white dichotomy hidden inside this bottle.

From the willingness and passion of its creators is born this organic white wine that asserts itself in a singular way, Naturally...Alentejo.

Tasting Notes

Fresh and complex aromas, notes of aromatic herbs marked by tea, mint and thyme. In the palate has a hint of fresh pear and apricot, with a long and persistent finish. A surprising and challenging wine in all aspects.

Temperature

8-10 °C

Harvest

In the vineyard we chose which varieties and plots would be suitable to produce this white of red grapes. We picked a small lot of Aragonês in “Vinha da Eira” plot, near the old thrashing floor, on the higher ground. The Alfrocheiro was picked in “Vinha Velha” plot, near the stream.

The manual harvest into boxes of 20 Kg took place, guaranteeing in this way the harvest of fruit of excellent quality and in the optimum point of ripeness.

Winemaking

The grapes were immediately transported to the cellar, destemmed and poured directly to the vertical hydraulic press. They were not pressed and only the free-run juice was fermented in stainless steel vats at the temperature of 16°C.
